Intermec Honors Top Partners of 2007

Partners represent superior software, services and market expertise

EVERETT, Wash., Feb. 20, 2008 –Intermec Inc. (NYSE:IN) has announced the winners of its 2007 Partner awards. Intermec Honours Partners represent a combination of superior software, services and market expertise in Enterprise Asset Management, Retail, Government, Consumer Goods and Field Service industries. That strength, combined with Intermec technology, products and solutions, ensures that highly diverse, yet very specific customer needs are met.

The partnership and spirit of collaboration between Intermec and its Honours Partners is globally recognized by customers who have been provided with the best possible data collection, mobile computing and RFID solutions in the market today. At a recently held Intermec Global Sales Summit, Intermec clarified its commitment to partners with a renewed, stronger focus on the channel. Intermec plans to drive 70% of the business through the partner channel in 2008.

“For over 40 years Intermec and our growing community of global partners have been sharply focused on providing our customers with the tools and technology to identify, manage and optimize their critical assets,” said Gary Jones, vice president global channels. “Our Partner award winners for 2007 reflect the very best of our Honours Partner Program, and we applaud their success.”
